

The Absolute Best Deep-Fried Foods You Can Find in Dallas

Farah Fleurima

11.17.15

As if the over-the-top fantasy foods of the State Fair of Texas didn't tip you off, Dallasites love their deep-fried dishes, calories be damned. From starters to sweets, it's hard to find a local menu that doesn't feature an entrée dunked in oil and served piping hot and crispy. These 10 must-have items are the deep-fried pride of Dallas.

Blue Balls Blue Sushi Sake Grill Preston Hollow and Fort Worth

In addition to having the most scandalous name, this small plate is easily the most exotic on this list: spicy crab is stuffed into aged tofu shells that are then wrapped in a strip of sushi seaweed. Then the whole shebang is tempura batter-coated and deep-fried. The result is a sweet-savory union that makes for a light snack and begs for an unfiltered sake.

6. Jonathon's Oak Cliff
1111 N Beckley Ave,
Dallas

7. El Fenix
1601 McKinney Ave,
Dallas

8. Bubba's Cooks Country
6617 Hillcrest Ave,
Dallas

9. Pakpao Thai
1628 Oak Lawn Ave,
Dallas

10. Blue Sushi Sake Grill
7859 Walnut Hill Ln,
Dallas

10. BLUE SUSHI SAKE GRILL

This popular sushi spot not only has some fantastic fish, but also a full vegetarian/vegan sushi menu with numerous options that all sound amazing like the shojin maki, BBQ seitan, grilled asparagus, pineapple, shallot, bibb lettuce, nori, soy paper, and sweet soy.

📍 7859 Walnut Hill Ln, Dallas, TX 75230 📞 972.677.7887

🌐 Website 📄 Menu

<https://www.thrillist.com/eat/dallas/best-deep-fried-food-in-dallas>

