

Enjoy Bar Food and Brews at Blatt Beer & Table

June 8, 2016

Alec Morovitz

Few things are as comforting as crisp pub food and a glass of chilled beer. Blatt Beer & Table is a beer garden that serves elevated pub food and a spectrum of craft beer—both of which are drawing major attention among locals in Preston Hollow.

Start your visit off right with a local craft beer. If you need help deciding which beer to enjoy, the staff at Blatt Beer & Table is quite knowledgeable and can make recommendations based on more popular beers. For Guinness lovers, try the Old Rasputin. The Russian Imperial Stout is a nitro based beer that packs a whopping 9.0% alcohol by volume (ABV).

The Old Rasputin is a craft beer with rich flavor and a smooth finish.

If you're looking for an appetizer, or a snack to pair with your drink, look no further than the Pickles & Petals. These dill pickle chips and onion petals are beer-battered and served with a kale beer cheese spread and a bacon Russian dressing.

The crunchy texture of the Pickles & Petals is complimented by its tangy and creamy bacon Russian dressing.

When it comes to the main course you make your selections from the categories of "On a Bun" and "The Classics. You'll find a mix of European inspired fare like the German traditional dishes of spatzle or bratwurst and creative pub sandwiches like the Beer Cheese Cuban. They even offer vegan and vegetarian options! This visit we tried the Beer-Battered Fish & Chips. Fish & chips, while a long time staple in England, is popping up more frequently on Dallas menus. When taking a bite of this classic, you will first taste a lightly fried and crispy exterior, followed by the warm, delicate white cod that touches the soul.

Using beer-battered white cod, served with creamy coleslaw and a malt vinegar aioli, the Blatt Beer & Table Fish & Chips is an ode to a classic.

No meal at this pub is properly finished without trying the Irish Brownie. The base of the dessert is a Guinness battered brownie, which comes topped with Irish ice cream, toasted pecans, and a Jameson caramel sauce drizzle. This dessert is so intoxicating that you may want to order two servings if you are in a group - the Irish Brownie has been known to cause others to look on with envy.

The Irish Brownie is a boozy, mouth watering dessert featuring both Guinness and Jameson.

Blatt Beer & Table is already generating a lot of publicity among beer garden lovers and locals alike. Finding a table can be difficult at peak hours, but don't let that stop you from trying the latest restaurant joining the buzzing corner of shops and eateries at Walnut Hill and Central Expressway. This gem is the perfect place for coworkers and friends to meet up after work or on the weekends and enjoy good company, good drinks, and good food.

<https://www.localsugar.com/c/Dallas/blog/Enjoy-Bar-Food-and-Brews-at-Blatt-Beer-%26-Table/1248>