

8 Best Late-Night Happy Hours in Dallas

Steven Lindsey

January 28, 2016

Happy hour's great and everything, but sometimes it's challenging to leave work and get to a restaurant or bar before the bargains end. And that's just downright sad. Fortunately, there are some great "reverse" happy hours around town where food and drink specials kick in at the end of the night, which is awesome for après-theater or après-just-about-anything. So raise a glass with us and toast these 8 great drinking deals. After all, it's nine o'clock somewhere.

Blue Sushi Sake Grill

At this duo of modern sushi restaurants in Fort Worth and Preston Hollow Village, reverse happy hour is all about late-night sushi bargains. Sadly, no drink specials during reverse happy hour, but the cheap rolls and nigiri make up for that quickly.

When: Fridays & Saturdays: 10:30 PM–midnight

Bargains: $4.50 specialty nigiri; $5.50 specialty Maki (sushi rolls); $3.50–$9.50 grill menu dishes (including steamed mussels and chicken lettuce wraps).

Multiple locations

<https://www.zagat.com/b/dallas/8-great-reverse-happy-hours-in-dallas>

