This being summer, and summer being the time when you theoretically eat fresher and lighter, one's thoughts turn to salads. At least, this one's thoughts do. If you search on the worldwide web for Best Salads in Dallas, you get this list and that, and they all seem to have one thing in common: They come topped with meat. How in the world when you think of a salad do you end up with meat?

Forget the other best salad lists. This is your list of the 10 best real salads in DFW:

Blatt Beer + Table, kale-Caesar

Everyone has a kale salad, making it hard to stand out. But the kale-Caesar at this elevated gastropub at Preston Hollow Village stands out. It has Boston lettuce, baby kale, shaved fennel, Grana Padano cheese, and brioche-herb croutons, but what really gives it the pop is the fresh citrus twist in its citrus-Caesar dressing.
