Nestled in one of my favorite centers in town, Preston Hollow Village lies your new favorite spot. Trust me on this!

Blatt Beer & Table has only been open a few short months but in that time it has gained a cult-like following of folks who love great food. A few weeks back I was invited in to try it out for myself and after trying all of the delicious offerings, I can honestly say that I understand where the obsession stems from.

Walking into Blatt Beer & Table, you immediately feel like you're with an old friend. The dark wood and low lighting allows for a cozy cabin feel even on the warmest of Texas days. There are ample tables in the dining area, a large bar and a double sided patio, allowing for an intimate setting or a fun, large party.

The menu at Blatt Beer & Table is vast and quite frankly, a bit surprising. From burgers to chicken tenders and a few fun twists like fish sliders and vegan currywurst, at Blatt there is something for everyone.

After dining in and trying several items, I had to share what some of my favorites were:

Bavarian Pretzel Bites with German rosemary mustard and Gruyere fondue – $6

Pickles & Petals: Beer-battered & cornmeal breaded dill pickle chips & onion petals, herb & kale beer cheese spread and bacon Russian dressing – $7

Dixie Fried Chicken Strips with hand-cut fries – $11

Blatt Burger: Angus beef cooked medium, brioche bun, parmesan-peppercorn aioli, Guinness-braised onions, Boston lettuce, tomato, garlic dill pickles – $11.50

Not convinced? I highly recommend that you go check out Blatt Beer & Table for yourself. Whatever you're in the mood for, Blatt will fulfill your every need!
